Spaniards Make Another Attack on Marines at Guantanamo.

TWO AMERICANS KILLED

Lieutenant Neville Finds Fifteen Dead Spaniards.

CONSTANT FIRING BY GUERRILLAS

Four Privates In Huntington's Corps Badly Wounded-Only the Protection of Our Ships Saves the Little Band From Annihilation.

KINGSTON, Jamaica, June 15.-After two nights of hard fighting the American flag still floats on Cuban soil over the encampment of the marine battalion, and our boys say they will keep it there until the belated troops arrive if it takes till winter.

Thus far the marines have had the best of the fighting, but the situation is grave and they are exhausted with repelling almost incessant attacks. They had little chance to rest or sleep, and the time of the arrival of the relieving troops is uncertain. Were it not for the protecting guns of the fleet the gallant little band would be annihilated by the Spanish troops, in overpowering numbers from Santiago de Cuba. As it is, they probably can hold their position, but they cannot move forward until reenforced by troops.

What first, with the white tents on a bold eminence against the tropic background, looked like a holiday camp is now grim reality. The tents have been struck and rolled into breastworks, supplemented by trenches around the crest of the hill. The spot is lamentably ex-posed, on bare ground, while surrounding it on all sides is heavy brush. The least movement in the camp is the sighal for instant target practice upon the part of the Spanish sharpshooters, whose rifles carry much farther than ours, though their owners very rarely hit anything they aim at.

It is impossible to accurately estimate the Spanish attacking force, but it is numerous enough. About two-thirds of this force surrounds the camp nightly with a deadly ring, and the spatting of the Mausers makes things quite lively, for the Spaniards are daring enough to crawl up and take a shot at the marines from the bushes, about 30 yards from the camp.

At night the besiegers fight like Indians, and our old Apache fighters will feel in their element. Every yard of chaparral is an ambuscade, and picket duty is flipping coins with death.

After the first attack, on Saturday night, Colonel Huntington decided that another attempt would be made on Sunday night, and he caused intrenchments to be thrown up on all sides of the camp, and in the trenches the main part of the battalion Sunday night waited for the attack that the colonel was certain would come. It arrived within a short time after dark, and from that time until daybreak the firing was incessant and at times very

On the American side two men were killed and four injured. The dead are: Sergeant Major Henry Goode of the marines, shot through the right breast. Private Tauman, wounded, and fell off the cliff and was instantly killed.

The injured are: Private Wallace, fell off the cliff and sustained a fracture of the leg.

Private Roxbury, shot through the The above are all privates belonging to Company D.

Private Burke, shot through the arm. The first attack of the Spaniards was made at 8 o'clock, and the last shot fired by them was at about 3 o'clock Monday morning.

During the night the Spaniards attacked the camp of the marines on shore, and the Marblehead, believing the Americans had been driven out, threw several shells into the place. The attack, however, was repulsed by the small detachment of marines in camp without trouble. The shells of the Marblehead struck among the marines.

The fight was the first of the war in which the Cubans co-operated with the American forces, and their co-operation was not a glittering success. At one time during the afternoon, when the marines were firing on a small detachment of Spaniards that made its appearance a short distance from the camp, the Cubans began firing without orders and sent a volley right among the Americans. There were several nar-row escapes, but no one was injured. Lieutenant Neville of Company D was sent out on scout duty, and, as on the day previous, he attacked a small stone fort. A hot fight followed, and the Spaniards were driven off with loss. It was during this fight that Wallace and Tauman fell over the cliff. Fifteen dead Spaniards, including one lieutenant, were found in the fort. During the attack several shots struck the ships in the harbor, one penetrating the pilot house of a newspaper dispatch boat. No one was injured on board of her. The night attack was picturesque and a striking spectacle—the crack of the Massers, tongues of fire from every bush emelvating the camp, the twitter of the busy steel builds overhead, while the massing gum down on the Pater

erash of the new guns could be heard as they were driving canister where the fire of the Spaniards was the thickest. Then there was the screech of the Marbiehead's shells as she took a hand in the light, and the quick, sharp flashing of the Colt rapid firing 1 pounder guns from the effectively placed ship launches. A night wild and lurid as a tropical

The Dolphin yesterday morning located the Spanish water station on the ocean side of the harbor entrance, which supplied the water for the attacking force. The well was situated in a blockhouse windmill, having a small garrison. It was shelled at 2,000 yards, Excellent practice was made, the station was wrecked and canister followed the retreating Spaniards up the steep ra-vine. Each shell disclosed the spot where it alighted by raising a cloud of dust. They were all well placed.

The dynamite cruiser Vesuvius, which joined Admiral Sampson's fleet off Santiago yesterday, is to be followed by the Ericsson, the Foote and other torpedo boats, and the arrival of the torpedo fleet will confirm the opinion that Admiral Sampson intends to force the harbor on the coming of the troops. Every man in the fleet is anxiously awaiting the soldiers, for it is recognized that no decisive movement is possible until the troops effect a landing.

GARCIA AT SANTIAGO.

Three Thousand Insurgents Ready to Assist In Our Landing.

TAMPA, Fla., June 15.-Some time ago General Miles sent Colonel Charles Hernandez of the Cuban army to Cuba with communications to General Garcia General Miles explained to General Garcia the plan of landing and attack on Santiago and asked for Garcia's support with all the insurgents at his command.

Colonel Hernandez arrived here on Saturday bearing a letter from Garcia to General Miles, in which Garcia explained that he had already, with his troops, taken possession of the position indicated by General Miles for the protection of the landing of the American General Garcia said that he had about 9,000 insurgents with him, all of whom are seasoned and hardened to campaign work and are well armed. General Garcia's letter ends as follows:

"I eagerly await for the American soldiers and hope they will come soon. 1 shall hold these positions until I receive word to the contrary from you, but remember that my troops, on account of the scarcity of food, cannot remain too long in the same place. I can retain my present position for two weeks after you receive this letter."

Government Indigrant Over the Mutilation of Our Dead Soldiers.

WASHINGTON, June 15. - Admira Sampson's statement in a dispatch made public by the navy department yesterday that the bodies of the marines killed near Guantanamo had beer "mutilated barbarously" has caused horror and indignation in official cir-

From the attitude of Admiral Cervers in regard to the exchange of Naval Constructor Hobson and the seven other heroes of the Merrimac the authorities had been led to believe that the war would be conducted by the Span ards with all regard to civilized methods All the old campaigners at the war department, and all military men, in fact think they know what Admiral Sampson meant by his expression.

To mutilate the dead body of an enc my is not merely to hack it with knives or swords, according to the definition given by army officers-it is to commit atrocious indignities on it. The Indians practice mutilation in its most depraved form on their enemies, but among civilized nations such deeds are usually punishable by death.

NO PEACE NEGOTIATIONS. So Almodovar Says-Madrid Admits Car-

ranza Has Been Ordered From Canada. MADRID, June 15 .- The minister for foreign aifairs. Duke Almodovar de Rio, told the newspaper men yesterday afternoon that the Spanish government had not taken any step in the direction of peace negotiations, The minister also said he had not received any confirmation of the reported third attack on Santiago de Cuba. The minister for war, General Correa, declares the situation at Manilla is better than was supposed. He says Captain General Augusti has concentrated 20,000 men for the defense of the city, and his batteries of artillery are asserted to comprise 199 long range guns. It was officially announced yesterday that Senor du Bosc, the former Spanish charge d'affaires at Washington, and Lieutenant Carranza, the former Spanish naval attache at Washington, have been "invited" to leave Canada owing to the "Canadian authorities having intercepted a letter which Lieutenant Carranza addressed to the minister of marine, giving an account of the condition of the American ports' fortifications. In the chamber of deputies discussion turned yesterday on the reported treaty made with the insurgents in the Philippines before the outbreak of the war with the United States. General La Chambre declared that the insurrection would not have revived but for Admiral Dewey's appearance at Manilla. The disaster at Cavite was due, he said, to the neglect of the authorities at Manilia, "as a few torpedoes would have frustrated the Americans." He urged the government to deal with the responsible parties.

GREAT UPROAR IN THE CHAMBERL

Lefts and Socialists Clamor For the Mine istry's Retirement-Exciting Debate on the Question of Confidence In the Government.

PARIS, June 15 .- The Meline ministry was defeated in the chamber of depuctes yesterday by 296 to 246 votesamid intense excitement and an up-

The house was crowded, as were the public galleries, and all present eagerly, discussed the situation. The premier, M. Meline, opened the proceedings by vehemently repudiating the statement that he was engaged in an antidemocratic policy, but he declared that the accession of Socialism to power would spell ruin for France.

Ex-Minister Bourgeois followed, taunting M. Meline with being unwilling to cut himself free from the Rightists, and several Extreme Leftists continued their severe strictures of the premier's "undemocratic policy."

M. Ribot then delivered a warm culo-gy of the premier and proposed a vote of confidence in the government. But its terms elicited loud protests from the Rightists amid general excitement.

M. Meline, however, accepted the terms of the motion, whereupon M. Case. sagnac charged him with throwing over the Rightists. The premier retorted that he had never asked for the support of the Rightists. The first part of M. Ribot's motion.

"The chamber approving the declarations of the government," was them adopted by a vote of 295 to 272, as already cabled to the Associated Press, and the second part, "Is determined to put in force the policy of democratic reform, based on the union of Republicans," was adopted by 525 to 5 votes. Thus far matters went comparatively smoothly. Then M. Henri Ricard moved to add the words "and supported by majority exclusively Republican." M. Meline refused to accept this addition. M. Ricard insisted upon a vote, and the addition was carried by 296 to 246 votes, whereupon there was a terrible uproar. The members of the Extreme Left arose en masse and shouted for the retirement of M. Meline. M. Berteraux yelled: "Get out! You are defeated!" Others, pointing to the ministerial bench, induiged in a chorus of "Boohs!" The Socialists vociferated, "Resign! Resign!" When a lull occurred, another vote was taken on the entire motion, which M. Meline accepted, swallowing the obnoxious addition, and the motion was adopted by 284 to 272 votes. The chamber of deputies then adjourned until Monday. In the lobbies of the chamber the opinion was freely expressed that M. Meline would resign after the council tomorrow, though nothing is certain owing to the contradictory character of

This information does not tally with a cablegram received Sunday night by United States Minister Powell, which asserted that 8,000 Americans had landed at Santiago bay without encountering serious opposition.

STARTED AT LAST.

Army Gets Off After Many False Alarms.

MERRITT'S TROOPS READY TO SAIL.

Philippine Expedition Expected to Leave San Francisco Today or Tomorrow. Lieutenant Blue Counts Cervera's Ships-There Are None Missing.

WASHINGTON, June 15 .- Without reference to the exact hour at which the United States army left Florida for Cuba, it may be safely said that before the end of the week General Shafter will have landed with his 15,000 United States troops on Cuban soil and that the investment of Santiago by land will have begun. There was some confusion in the official mind here yesterday on the time of departure of the transports. though assurance was given that they had all got away. The confusion on this point is easily accounted for by persons who know anything of the difficulty of moving simultaneously a numerous fleet composed of vessels of all sizes and classes. No less than three times, beginning Sunday, was a definite hour selected for the start, and the war department so notified, yet in each case some untold obstacle was encountered that required notification to the department that a postponement had been Having started the Santiago expedition, the war department has now concentrated all its energies on the preparation of the force to be sent to Puerto Rico. Active movements in that line have been made on a scale so extensive as to lead to the supposition in some quarters that the attack is to be directed upon Havana, but if this is so there is no open indication of it. The volunteers collected at Chattanooga, in number, are reaching a degree of excellence under the magnificent management of General Brooke that would warrant the government in ordering them immediately into active service, but unfortunately there is still a considerable lack of equipment that will not permit of this. General Merritt has brought the second installment of his force into readiness and sails for Manilla today. It is believed that the advance guard, the three transports which followed the Charleston to Honolulu met the cruiser there and sailed in her company for the Philippines about the 12th of this month. In this case it is reasonable to expect them to arrive at Manilla within a week.

The only bulletin posted at the navy department yesterday from Sampson contained the satisfactory news that an American naval officer, Lieutenant Victor Blue of South Carolina, at the risk of his life had succeeded in encircling the bay of Santiago and counting the Spanish vessels therein, with the result of establishing the fact that all of Cervera's fleet is bottled up.

An unexpected complication has arisen as to the right of Admiral Sampson at Santiago and Admiral Dewey at Manilla to use the cables which each has secured with a view to bringing them into direct telegraphic communication with the authorities here.

It is understood by officials here that Admiral Dewey secured the shore end of the cable leading from Manilla to Hongkong some time ago and buoyed it with a view to sending dispatches. The same condition is understood at Santiago, where Admiral Sampson has buoyed the shore end of the cable with a view to repairing and using it, but no messages have been sent, and the question has arisen as to whether it is allowable under the rules of neutrality for the French and British companies owning these lines to permit them to be used for strictly military purposes. The companies control the points of exit and are able to refuse to pass dispatches along, so that the holding of the shore ends by Admirals Dewey and Sampson does not permit them to carry on communication except through the consent of the companies. These are private concerns, but they are bound to observe the neutrality of their respective governments. There is some anxiety, therefore, as to the course of the operators of the French company in Haiti when they receive messages from Admiral Sampson. Should they refuse to handle them over neutral lines touching neutral territory an interesting international question might arise. The same condition exists as to the Manilla cable, and the failure to receive dispatches from Manilla is attributed to the failure of the British operators at Hongkong to take the messages. It was stated tonight that negotiations were now progressing which gave promise of a satisfactory understanding with the companies and the forwarding of such messages as the American admiral should Troops Ready to Start For the Philippine Islands.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 15 .- Thirtyfive hundred soldiers left Camp Merritt yesterday, marched to the docks and boarded the transports which are to form the second expedition against the Philippines. Today has been set for sailing day, but it is doubtful if the voyage begins before tomorrow. The ficet will be made up as follows:

Steamer China-First Colorado infantry, two Utah batteries, light artillery and half of the Eighteenth United

Steamer Colon-Twenty-third United States infantry and half of the Eighteenth United States infantry.

Steamer Zealandia—Tenth Pennsylvama volunteer infantry,

Steamer Senator-First Nebraska volunteer infantry. Brigadier General Greene is in command of the expedition. His adjutant general is Captain Bates of the Seventyfirst New York volunteers

When everything was ready for the five mile march to the water front, the men were lined up in heavy marching order. Yesterday evening the steamers left their docks for anchorage in the stream, the work of trimming cargo having been completed. It has been given out that the vessels will get away for Manilla some time today, but from unofficial sources it is learned that much remains to be done before the fleet can take its departure and that tomorrow will probably be the day finally set for the commencement of the voyage.

LAS PINAS TAKEN.

The Insurgents Are on the Outskirts of Manilla.

LONDON, June 15 .- A dispatch to The Daily Telegraph from Shanghai says that advices from Manilla under date of June 8 show that the insurgents forced the passage of the Zapote river and captured Las Pinas and Paranaki. Since then the fighting has been incessant night and day. The Spaniards are being gradually driven in, and the fall of Manilla seems imminent before the arrival of the American troops. A panic is probable. The Spaniards prefer to capitulate to Admiral Dewey rather than to risk the horrors of insurgent success. The place is absolutely incapable of resisting a bombardment. Its defenders suffer severely from the incessant attacks of the insurgents and the want of food and rest. The hospitals and churches are crowded with the wounded. Admiral Dewey is surprised by the progress of the insurgents, who, according to the Spaniards, are led by Americans.

PUERTO RICO.

Fourth Army Corps Under General Coppinger to Occupy the Island.

WASHINGTON, June 15.—The Fourth army corps, Major General John J. Coppinger commanding, has been definitely designated to undertake the occupation of Puerto Rico. It will be rapidly increased to a force of 20,000 men, including all available regulars now in the south, with the addition of the best volunteer regiments at Tampa, Chickamauga and Falls Church, Va. These selections will be made in the next day or two, with chief regard to the military qualities of the volunteers and the comparative completeness of their equipment.

The war department was able to announce positively last night that a sufficient number of transports to move the Fourth corps would be assembled by the middle of next week, and no effort will be spared to carry out the president's intention of hoisting the American flag on some portion of the island of Puerto Rico by the 4th of July. Advantage will be taken of the experience gained and the difficulties overcome in dispatching General Shafter's corps, and supreme confidence is expressed by army officials that there will be no recurrence of the exasperating confusion which delayed the departure of the transport fleet, which finally got safely on the way to Santiago yesterday morn-

General Miles, in his telegrams to the war department yesterday, gave no intimation that he was about to return to Washington, and he is not expected here, in spite of the persistent rumors that he had been summoned for consultation. On the contrary, he is relied upon to facilitate General Coppinger's departure by remaining in Florida to supervise in person the concentration and organization of the expedition. He is readily credited with having accomplished the prompt untangling of the railroad complication which General Shafter had been powerless in his subordinate position to effect, and he is rehed upon to prevent its repetition.

It is expected that the relief ship State of Texas will sail from Tampa, following the transports to Santiago de Cuba or other points of landing, immediately upon the arrival of Miss Barton and her staff. The central Cuban relief committee telegraphed to Drs. Gardner and Egan, who are now in charge of the State of Texas, to have all things in readiness for sailing immediately upon Miss Barton's arrival if so desired by Commodore Watson, under whose orders and protection the ship will be placed until her arrival at some Cuban port.

WASHINGTON, June 15 .- At yesterday's session of the senate the resolution of Mr. Lodge of Massachusetts directing that an inquiry be made into the disposition made of the Methodist Book Concern claim, which was paid recently by congress, was adopted without division. In the course of the debate upon it Mr. Morgan of Alabama charged that the resolution was insincere and had been drawn for political effect. This statement Mr. Lodge denied vigorously, saying his only purpose in offering the resolution was that all the facts concerning the matter should be laid before the people, to the end that more care should be exercised in the future. He hoped that as a result of the proposed investigation a general law would be passed to eliminate the professional lobbyist from the legislative equation.

The measure to incorporate the International An erican bank was under discussion for three hours, the debate eliciting some interesting facts concerning the foreign trade of this country. Final action was not taken on the bill.

A house joint resolution appropriating $474,151 to pay the Bering sea award was adopted. The appropriation is carried in the sundry civil appropriation bill, but that measure is still in conference, and the award has to be paid on the 16th instant.

WASHINGTON, June 15.-Eight hours, comprising afternoon and evening sessions of the house vesterday. were devoted to debate of the Newlands resolution for the annexation of Hawaii. Twenty speeches were delivered, most of them being brief. A vote will be taken at 5 o'clock this afternoon, and in order to give time for speeches which members desire to make the house agreed to meet at 10 o'clock this morning. The resolution, according to estimates yesterday, will receive, with the exception of not more than 12, all the Republican votes and will enlist the support of from 15 to 20 Democrats and members of other parties.

The Bering Sea Award.

LONDON, June 15.-The Times this morning, in an editorial which pretty fairly represents the feeling expressed by the other morning papers, says: "The resolution to pay the Bering sea award is another gratifying instance of the growth of the spirit of friendship and justice toward England in a quarter where, until recently, such feelings were rarely exhibited. It is a proof of the good feeling which we cordially recognize and reciprocate, as well as a good omen for the establishment of those closer and more cordial relations between the two countries toward which the best minds on both sides of the Atlantic have been steadily moving."

Fompkins' New Dry Goods Store, 35 North St.

MID-JUNE MERCHANDISE!

Geography is the study of the period. War makes strategy familiar Tompkins' New Dry Goods Store in its new location, 35 North street, is the most central, the finest and largest dry goods store in this city. Thus Tompkins' is the strategic point. That fact is quite familiar to some thousands of people in Middletown and vicinity.

The POINT is valueless without the power. Three elements make the power.

First GOODS, second PRICES, third PUBLICITY.

THE GOODS—There is no war scare here. New goods are coming in daily, lots of them, and they go out as fast as they come in. Our city buyer is on the lookout every day for new bargains for Tompkins' Big Store.

THE PRICES—Will this business be here prosperous five years from now? That largely depends on the bargains we give you now. Our business life is vitalized by the advantages we are able to offer you.

THE PUBLICITY—True news of good goods, at right prices make the Tompkins column good reading every week. Once again this week will each department arise in its bargain might and prove its bargain power. Once again will the multitude heartily respond to the unstinted bargain richness. Once again will small prices become great by bringing in enormous returns. This week is bargain week par excellence at Tompkins'—the popular shopping point of Middletown.

NEW Hundreds of yards of them. At no DIMITIES, other place are they less than 12½c., many get 15c for the new goods, late printings and pretty ones. Many different patterns. We have never har au offer in wash goods so all around good as this at Tompkins'. They are 10c per yard.

TEN CENT DIMITIES Large assortment of new AND ORGANDIES patterns to thoose from.
6 CTS. A YARD. All fresh, new and bright. the price is so low, the quality so good, they will hardly last the week out.

NEW PERCALES These are fine yard wide FOR 10c A YARD. goods that are sold for French Percales. They are made in this country, however, but they are as good and as fine as the French stuff at double the money elsewhere; they are 12½ and 15c. At Tompkins 10c a yard.

PLAIN WHITE PIN STRIPED There are 15 DIMITIES 5 CENTS A YARD, pieces in this lot. Every piece is exactly one pattern. The quality is fine. You can't match it anywhere for less than 12½ to 15c. Just the thing for white dre see or approvs. BOTTED SWISS

THE BASS SEASON OPENED.

Nany Pishermen at the Reservoirs and the Wallkill-Some Mad Good Sport and Others Had No Luck at All.

The bass season opened, this morning, with delightful weather. Those fishermen who were on the shores or in the Wallkill at daybreak for a few hours' sport before business bours did not meet with bewildering success.

The new reservoir was most prolific, and Harry M. Hayes and a friend returned with a dozen nice ones. The lower reservoir fishermen only succeeded in landing one or two each. Among those at these lakes "before breakfast" were: Charles Predmore, N. D. Mills, Chas. Adams, Jacob M. Totten, Joseph Penney, Wesley Decker, A. S. Reynolds, Benj. Crist, Aug. Piaff.

The Wallkill River was never better for wading. The regular visitors were out in full numbers. The most successful angler was Officer Roth, who had to stop fishing early because he caught the limit allowed by law-twenty-four. A good many bass less than ten inches long were caught and were thrown back into the stream, (as required by law,) to die from their injuries.

ENVIOUS GOSHENITES.

Thirsty Newspaper Men at the County Sout Want a Browery Startod There. From the Independent Republican.

That Middletown's new brewery should be extremely courteous in its treatment of the newspaper boys of that city was entirely right and proper, and that the newspaper boys should reciprocate was no more than could have been expected. But it would seem that however copious the brewery's courtesy might have been, the journalists were hardly justified in uniting to publish in all the city papers the detailed and circumstantial stories of dying and decaying fish polluting the waters of the city's reservoir. The daily removals of dead and rotten fish from Highland Lake alone have gradually been increased by the journalistic friends of the brewery until they have reached ten bushels. The publication of such matter is eminently calculated to drive the average Middletowner to drick, and the product of the local brewery naturally suggests itself at this time. The liquid seed sown by the brewing company has been poured into fertile ground and great has been the harvest. The Goshen newspaper men, with parched throats and a thirst of long standing, are wondering why somebody doesn't start a brewery down here.

A DIBHONEST YOUNG WOMAN. Spent a, Whale Pay M. Trying to Rob

Liberty Werehants. A young woman, probably twenty-five years old but dressed like a girl of fifteen spent last Thursday in trying to rob the Liberty stores. In some places she tried shopiliting and in others tried to obtain goods under false pretences, and in one case, when the latter scheme did not work, returned and grabbed the package that contained the goods she had ordered and ran away with it, only to be pursued and caught.

The merchants were all warned of her dishonest actions early in the day, and although she was not arrested a close watch was kept on her, and when she had appropriated anything she was made to surrender it. When she was searched many small articles, principally jewelry, were found on her, but none of them belonged to Liberty dealers. A ten cent hat pin is said to bave been the net result of her day's work in Liberty.

J. P. Kilgour Submits to Herole Treat-

F. Kilgour, of Passaic, "the blue stone king," last week had an opening made in his skull by an emineut Brooklyn surgeon/ and had the nerves that centre there severed. The operation is a very dangerous one and usually results fatally, and the surgeon was most reluctant to perform it, but Mr. Kilgour insisted and the result was favorable. A few years ago Mr. Kilgour had his teeth removed and the facial nerves cut in the hope of securing a permanent cure, but this heroic treatment only gave temporary relief.

OUR LACK OF PREPARATION. From the Boston Transcript.

Since we are so much unprepared after so much warning, and when we as aggressors chose the time for making the strike, the question arises what would have happened if some great power as the aggressor had suddenly attacked us? If France, for instance, had broken loose on us with a sixty days notice, we might now be holding Congress in Denver, and the damage which would have been inflicted upon us, especially the eastern seaboard, in the opening months of such a war, would have been incalculable. It is fortunate that we are dealing with a worn-out, seventh rate power, and not with one of the great namons of Europe. The lesson which these considerations is giving Congress is that something should be done to make the militia more immediately available for national defense. The regular army considering our enormous expanse of territory, is really good for little more than national picket duty. And as between a large increase in that army or a more effective national guard, the latter would be immeasurably more in line with our traditions and vastly more economical. A nation that has a small standing army should have the largest and best militia possible and yet all past efforts to improve and reorganize that first line of reserves have fallen flat. In the years from 1700 to 1871, inclusive, so the historian tells us, no fewer than ten instances have occurred in which declarations of war have preceded hostilitles, and 107 cases are reported in which hostilities have begun without previous declaration of war. It is also noticeable that the decisive battles of our great modern wars have usually been fought shortly after the opening of hostilities, and long before we, under our present system, could have any soldiery ready for action. In the war between France and Austria, in 1859, the decisive battle of Solferino was fought June 24, when the war had been declared the 3d of May preceeding. In the Austro-Prussian war of 1866, Sadowa was fought just 17 days after the declaration of war. In the war between Austria and Italy, of the same year, the battle of Lissa was fougat just 30 days after the opening of hostilities. In the Franco-German war of 1870, declared July 15, the battle of Sedan was fought on the 2d of September. In our own civil war there was no such immediate decisive battle, because both parties were substantially on the same footing, so far as preparation was concerned, and the soldiers of each side had to take a year to learn to fight:

EASILY DECIDED.

When the Proof Comes from People We Know in Middletown.

There is something always associated with the emphasized opinion of people we know in Middletown that is lacking when the expressed views of a resident of another city are contrasted or compared. If we do not agree with the former they can be hunted up and contradicted or there can be gathered from them "the reasons for the hope that is in them." We can't do this with an outsider, except by a cumbersome roundabout method which has every chance in the world to end dissatisfactorily. In the realm of advertising patent medicines this is very apparent for there are two kinds of evidence appearing side by side in Middletown papers. One from local endorsers, the other from far away testators. It ought to be simple to decide which can be depended on the more. Read this case and make a decision.

Mr. W. H. Sutton, No. 56 North St., who has charge of the upholsting department of the O. and W., R. R., says: "My health has always been good with the exception of kidney complaint which caused me more or less trouble for two and a half or three years. Sometimes the pain in my loins was so bad I could not do snything. Every morning when I tried to get up my back was lame or stiff or sore, I do not know what caused it, but I do know that when I caught cold it was always worse. I tried. amongst other things for it. Doan's Kidnev Pills, getting them at J. E. Mills drug my complaint disappeared and I have not been troubled since. I think Doan's Kidney Pills a wonder."

July 4—Picuic of Ontario Hose Co.. No. 5, at Mænnerchor Park, afternoon and evening.

Superintendent of Public Works Aldridge, has made a new record. He expended for advertising the letting of contracts for canal improvement more money than has been expended for advertising causl work in the whole history of the canals. It may be added that Mr. Aldridge spent most of the money where it was most needed-in Republican papers.

Dr. Swallow, the independent Republican caudidate for Governor of Pennsylvania, has challenged Col. Stone, Quay's candidate, to a joint debate, which he proposes to limit to two charges, that emissaries of the Republican bosses fired the State capitol and that Republican management of State affairs has been wasteful, extravagant and corrupt. Strangely enough Col. Stone is very re-Justant to discuss these propositions.

Another proof of the incompetence and imbecility of the political soldiers at the head of New York's military department was furnished, Monday, when a United States inspector reported that 900 of the rifles with which the 14th Regiment was armed were unfit for use and will have to be replaced by new ones. The 12th Regiment's rifles were also found in bad condition and many of them were condemned.

The war is prolific with instances of in. dividual daring Not the least noteworthy of these is the achievement of Lieut, Victor Blue, who landed near Santiago and, making his way through a hostile country, secured information as to fortifications and strategic points which will be invaluable to the invading army and also brought back the first definite information that all the Cape Verde fleet is in the harbor. Lieut. Blue's achievement though not so showy and ring. blood-stirring as that of Hobson and his men was every bit as brave and is deserving of equal recognition.

A "State bureau of elections" is proposed by Republican politicians as a device for punishing the Democrats of New York city because Mayor Van Wyck exercised the power given him under the charter and removed Republican police commissioners with whom he was not satisfied. A "State bureau of elections" under Republican control would be a returning board of the Louisiana type and would everlastingly damn the party responsible for its creation and manipulation. New York's election laws have not prevented bribery at the polls, but the votes as cast have been honestly counted and returned, and canvassed as returned, and the people of the State will not tolerate any scheme that looks toward monkeying with the results of elections.

WANT TO RULE NEW YORK CITY

residents who are hard at work on a suitable scheme of police control for Democratic New York city are Thomas C. Platt, of Tioga: Benjamin B. Odell, Jr., of Newburgh; William Barnes, Jr., of Albany; George W. Dunn, of Binghamton, and Louis F. Payn, of Chatham. It is the general hope that a plan may be evolved which will commend itself to Timothy E. Edwards, of Lockport; John Raines, of Canandaigua, and S. Fred Nixon, of Westfield, and, having withstood the scrutiny of these leaders of cosmopolitan thought, be eventually approved by Frank S. Black, of Troy.

DROWNED IN CHECHUNK CANAL.

Patrick Monuhan Browned While Bathing Near the Benton Bridge—The Body Not Yet Recovered-supposed to Be in the Whirlpool.

Patrick Monohan, a young farmer of near Denton, was bathing in the Chechunk canal near that village, Tuesday night, with his younger brother and two other lads, when he was seized with cramps while in about ten feet of water. He called for help, but the others were unable to assist him and he was swept nto the current. The accident occurred about 500 feet above the bridge, and the body was probably swept into the whirlpool at the bridge.

All efforts to recover it with the use of grappling irous failed Tuesday night and this morning.

Coroner Harding was notified, and he went there this morning, only to find that the body had not yet been recovered.

The searchers came to this city, this morning, and procured dynamite, which will be set off in the hope of recovering the body.

From Our New Hampton Correspondent. His companions, George Higgs and Fred Carr, who were in the water at the time and heard him cry for help, endeavored to save him, but he sank before they reached him. Last night every effort was made to recover the body, but after searching several hours the task was given up until this morning. At this writing the body has not been recovered. The river is being dragged and a number are searching the deep water. Dr. Shelley has sent to Middletown for dynamite, which will be used in the hope of raising the body. The drowning occurred at the same place where the Ferguson boys were drowned two years ago.

Montgomery, by the Rev. Mr. Berg.

A very pretty though quiet wedding took place in this village, Tuesday afternoon, at 2 o'clock, when Miss Gracie Santee, an accomplished young lady, was united in marriage to the Rev. B. J. Morgan, pastor of the Circleville Presbyterian Church. The ceremony was performed at the home of the bride, by the Rev. T. B. Thomas, of Monroe. Only the immediate family was present. After a wedding trip of two weeks, which will be spent in visiting friends in Peeneylvania and other States, the happy couple will take up their residence in the par-

We extend congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Morgan.

Middletown soldiers Get Their Pay.

The companies of the 1st Regiment at Fort Hamilton were paid, Tuesday, receiving checks from the State for the amounts due them. Some difficulty was experienced in getting the checks cashed.

The companies are now comfortably settled in camp and are well pleased with their quarters.

bas arrived here. She save the condition of the civil population in Havana is simply indescribable. Many deaths are occurring daily from starvation. She has known many cases where cultured ladies, some of them Americans, shut themselves in their houses, scorning to ask aid of the Spaniards, preferring to die in silence. The sister has a list of 120 women and children, the majority of whom are Americans, who actually have no food or means and nothing to look forward to but death from hunger.

To show the condition of the town, she said: "A few days before I was expelled a band of more than 200 women, gaunt and emaciated, went in a procession to Blanco asking foed. A small supply was handed out. The soldiers have full rations for two months and the Palace has supplies for three months. There is no doubt that if the city is in danger of being taken the Cuban prisoners will be massacred. General Blanco states he will reduce the town to ashes before he will surrender."

TRANSPORT FLEET WELL OUT TO SEA.

TAMPA, June 15-The transports carrying Gen Shafter's expedition are, today, well under way to tuba. The steamship Olivette, the last one to leave, returned to the dock at midnight for seventy tons of coal and to land a number of sick soldiers brought back from the transports.

The Olivette, which is a fast vessel, reports that, late last night, she left the fleet well out at see going at eight knots. After taking on coal the Olivette will return to the fleet.

HAWAIIAN ANNEXATION RESOLU-TION.

WASHINGTON, June 15 - Newlands' resolution for the annexation of Hawaii will be taken up by the House, late this afternoon, and will be adopted by a large majority. The probability of its passing the Senate is slim, for it is expected a quorum will fail before a final vote can be reached.

HELGRAMITES IN DEMAND.

The Supply is short and all Offered Find a Ready bale to Bass Fishermen.

The helgramite has been a much sought after bait in this city, to-day. Several who made an attempt to establish a business in this commodity found that there were many more customers than helgramites. All in sight were readily sold at two cents each. The average fisherman will use a score or more of them in a forenoon's fishing. Some of the "crank" fishermen have a large supply on hand in aired boxes tattening on fleshings from the tannery, but these are not for sale.

The Sullivan county man who has spare time would be repaid by bringing a few hundred helegramites to the market here.

** W ELA, Mary Ann Mulligan, is it yerself? Sure it's a cure for ore eyes to see ye. Ye're roster and fatter than ever ye were. Come right inet me take the things off this chairnow sit ye down. How's the good man and all the childer? Ah, ha! Ye're puffin, and blowin' like a porpoise. Ye're not the light-footed gyurl that used to skip up Rathfine hill-God bless it and the blue sky over it! -in the good buid days."

"Bedad, Maggie Bertelli, it-pooh-it ad make inny wan-blow to climb thim -tairs. You - you made sure you wouldn't have to go far to reach Heaven, if you died in these rooms. How have you been for the last six months, since you came up to Harlem to see us?"

"We've all been doin' finely, thanks be to God. Now take off yer bonnet and shawl, and I'll pour ye out a cup o' tay that I'm keepin's warm for Mary anings she comes home from the cloak -bop."

"I'll be deprivin' the child-" objected the visitor.

"Sorra bit. There's enough in the taypot for half a dozen," and Mrs. Bertelli hurried to the stove on her hospitable mission, while Mrs. Mulligan took off her bonnet and shawl, smoothed out he creases in her kerchief that covred her ample shoulders, and surveyed he tidy apartment with an experienced nousewife's critical eye. "Maggie," she-remarked to her host-ss. "it's beyant me to know how you an live down here in a double-decker n Sullivan street among all the dagoes -widout manin' offense to your good uan-whin you might just as well be iving up in Harlem among your own kind, where you could get a breath of resh air now an' agin."

"Well, Mary Ann, ye see Tony's work is down here, an' Mamie sews over in a Broadway cloak house, and it's convanient for thim. The neighbors is quiet, harmless folks, and I not knowin' their talk, have little to do wid thim. As for Tony, he's the best husband and father, God bless him, that ever lived. Now here, take this sup o' tay while it's hot;" and Mrs. Bertelli put the cup of

'tay" on the table in front of her guest. "Bednd," said Mrs. Mulligan, as she sipped the beverage, "you might a' gone furder and fared worse than marryin' Fony. But in this barracks, crowded with furriners of all kinds, you run a risk of catchin' some kind o' sickness."

"Thrue for ye. There was two min an' a babe, sick wid smallpox, taken out o' the big tinement next door on'y a couple o' weeks ago," replied the

"Lock at that now! Sure it's the dirt of the barthens with their rooms turned into ragshops."

Mrs. Bertelli's information about the sickness seemed to have disturbed her friend, for after a moment's silence sh said, in a slightly hushed voice:

"God preserve us, I hope you have no smallpox in this house. Me little Tim ain't as hardy as he might be, and I wouldn't want to carry the disease home to him."

"Make yer mind easy," replied Mrs. Bertelli. "There's none av it here. hear me daughter Mamie's step on the stairs. Wait till ye see what a fine big gyurl she's grown. Good avenin' to ye, miss," cried Mrs. Bertelli as the girl entered. "Do ye see who's here? Me ald friend, Mrs. Mulligan, from Harlem," and the mother beamed proudly on the tall, pretty young woman who kissed her, and gave welcome to ber mother's friend.

"Arrah, Mamie, I wouldn't knowtyou if I met you on the street," exclaimed Mrs. Mulligan. "You've grown so tall and han'some. You've got your father's big black eyes and curly raven locks, and the beautiful rosy checks your mother brought wid her from the ould

"She's rosier than usual this avenin'," -nid Mis Bertelli. "Ain't ye feelin' well, acushla? Why, yer hand is burn-

"I'm not very well to-night, mammy. i've had a headache all day long."

"Give her a hot cup o' tay, Mary Ann. It'll do her good. Thim cloak shops is so crowded and stiffin' they do give the girls the headache to be in thim all day," aid the girl's mother.

"I couldn't eat or drink, mammy. I'll est awhile on the bed. I'll see you agnin before von tenve, Mrs. Mulligan," and Mamie passed into the bedroom.

"It's a fever she has, Maggie," whispered Mrs. Mulligan, "and as soon as Fony comes in you'd betther sind for the docthor. Now it's gettin' late," he continued, thinking about little Fini, "who wasn't as hardy as he might. he." and the possibilities of Mamie's fever proving contagious. It's getin' late, and I have a long journey afore me, so I'll be goin'. Be sure now, and orme up and see us soon."

"Ye've taken the heart out o' me. Mary Ann, wid yer talk about faver. That gyurl's the apple o' me eye, an' if inusthing was to happen to her-God in' flis Blessed Mother help me, I don't know what'd become o' me. An' her father-poor man-his heart an' soul's wrapped up in her. There never was i betther young woman or a betther 'aughter. Why, she spint the best part d her nights tindin' that sick baby next dure, just to give its mother a chance to get some rest, and now-" The goodcatured eyes were dimmed with tears, "Cheer up, Maggie, The girl'll be all right in the mornin'. Now, good-by to you, and come up to see us soon." "Good-by, good luck to ye, ye always had the cheerin' word for a corrowin' heart, Mary Ann," and Mrs. Bertelli ook the lamp from the table and lighted the way to the long staircase.

When the sound of her visitor's footreps had died away downstairs she nurried into the little bedroom, and a locomotive engine would crush out its tender little life if it were playing on the track. This is the great law of heredity which never gets off the track for anybody. The prospective mother who is sustained through the period of anticipation by the strengthening health-giving aid of Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription, will find all the dangers of motherhood completely overgoned and a large portion of its pain and come and a large portion of its pain and discomforts banished. This wonderful restorative "Prescription" gives health to the special organs and nerve-centers. It makes

I got so bad with nervous prostration that I had to give up and commence to doctor. I tried our local physicians and one in Joliet, but none gave me any relief and I thought I was going to die. I became despondent and suffered untold agony. I could not eat, sleep nor rest, and it seemed as if I could not exist. At the end of six months I was reduced to but a shadow of myself, and at last my heart became affected and I was truly miserable. I took six or eight bottles of Dr. Miles' Nervine. wet a towel she heard the tramping of many feet on the stairs below, and then a loud rapping at the doors of the apartments of the four families on each floor. As she was returning to her daughter's bedside the footsteps came nearer. There seemed to be at least half a dozen men in the party. Rat-tat-tat!

They were at Mrs. Bertelli's own door

"Who's there?" she asked, with some little perturbation.

"Board of health inspectors," came the prompt answer. "Open the door!" She turned the key in the lock, the door was flung open, and a stalwart member of the sanitary board stepped into the room, followed by a tall, kindly faced man, enveloped in an ulster. After him came others, until the small room was crowded with men.

"Anybody sick here?" asked the man in the ulster. "Me daughter, sir," faltered Mrs. Ber-

Mrs. Bertelli pointed to the little bed-"She's in there, sir," she said, in a voice broken with apprehension of evil. The big policeman picked up the lamp and led the way into the apartment, the man in the ulster following. A few moments of silence in the darkness, and then the black figure of the tall man was outlined in the doorway against the lamp light. "Dr. Raymond," he cried, in authoritative tones, "there's a well-developed case here. Send out a call for the wagon. Officer, let no one except our party come in or go out of this room until it has been fumigated. Let me have some vaccine points."

"In the name of God, man, what is the matter?" cried Mrs. Bertelli, terror stricken.

"Your daughter has malignant smallpox," answered the man in the ulster, who was the chief inspector, "and we are about to remove her to the hospital on North Brother Island." "Oh, for the love o' God, sir, don't take her away from me. She's all I have in the world to love-me joy, me pride! If ye take her away from me she'll die in the pest house. Oh, my-"

"Stand aside now, my good woman. We'll take good care of her. You wouldn't imperil the health of the 200 people in this house, would you?"

Day after day, regardless of pouring rain, driving snow or frosty blast, an Irishwoman, followed by a short but brawny Italian, entered an office in the health department building, and stood aside until the last person had been attended to by the clerk, or until the kindhearted policeman detailed to the place had approached, and asked the couple their business. Then with sorrowfiul voice the woman would say: "We had a little gyurl, sir, who was sick and they took her away from us, and sint her across the river. Mebbe. sir, ye've got some word from her today. Mebbe ye could find out for us

In the hurry-and bustle of a great city's charitable bureau there is but little time to answer the simple inquiries of simple souls, and no doctors' bulletins are received from the great island hospitals recording the condition of the thousands of humble sufferers; but there was a look of dumb, patient grief on the faces and attitudes of the Bertellis that touched the hearts of the clerk and the policeman.

One bleak day the couple entered, and in answer to the policeman's questions the clerk's finger running down the page of his register stopped suddenly midway, and he said, in a low tone: "Huml The little girl is across the river." His tone was not low enough to escape an anxious mother's ear. She clasped her hands, the tears of joy ran down her cheeks, and she sobbed: "God and His Blessed Mother be praised. Do you hear, Tony? little gyurl is comin' home." "You don't understand, my poor woman," said the big policeman in a husky voice toned to a whisper. "Your little girl has gone home. Gone across the river, to a home where there's no more sickness or trouble. Quick, Tom! Hand me a glass of water. The poor noul's fainted, God help her."-Peterson's Magazine.

LATE COURT DECISIONS.

The United States supreme court has jus: decided unconstitutional the Pennsy tania law prohibiting the sale of oleomargarine, and the New Hampshire law requiring pink coloring.

The constitutionality of a succession lax is sustained in state, ex rel. Gelsthorpe vs. Furnell (Mont.) 39 L. R. A. 170, although it exempts estates less han $7.500 each.

For a tenant in common to take peroleum oil from the land is held, in Williamson vs. Jones (W. Va.), 38 L. R. A. 694, to constitute waste, for which he is liable to his cotenents to the extent of their interests. The doctrine that the fee is in abeyance while a remainder is contingent is repudiated in Bigley vs. Watson (Tenn.), 38 L. R. A. 679, although the court concedes that a majority of the authorities may be to the contrary. The ability to read the constitution of the state, which is required of a voter. is held in Rasmussen vs. Boker (Wyo.), 38 L. R. A. 773, to be an ability to read it in the English language, and not merely in a translation.

The power to require vaccination as a condition precedent to school attendance is denied in Potts vs. Breen (III.). 30 L. R. A. 152, where the statute has not expressly conferred it-especially when there is no emergency calling for its ex-

THE ENGLISH ARMY.

Serving in the army at the present time are 578 commissioned officers who joined as privates.

The government paid £ 15,000 for the secret and right of manufacture of the Whitehead torpedo.

About 700 out of every 1.000 men in the British army belong to the Church of England. It is said that there are not more than 12 Jews in the service. A private soldier wishing to obtain a commission through the ranks cannot be recommended if he is below the rank of corporal, have less than two years' service, or be under 24 years of age.

There is only one regimental officer serving in the British army holding ducal rank. This is Henry John Innes-Ker, duke of Roxburghe, at present a second lieutenant in the Royal Horse guards.

The number of men in the regular army and its first-class reserve, the home militia, yeomanry cavalry and volunteers, at the commencement of the year, was estimated at 641.252; 212,-393 of these were regular troops, $2,005 reserve, 105,531 militia, 9,409 yeomanry, and 231,914 volunteers. The grand total last year was 643,668.

called Grain-O. It is a delicious, appetizing, nourishing food drink to take the place of coffee. Sold by all grocers and liked by all who have used it because when properly prepared it tastes like the finest coffee but is free from all its injurious properties. Grain-O aids digestion and strengthens the nerves. It is not a stimulant but a health builder and children, as well as adults, can drink it with great benefit. Costs about one-fourth as much as coffee. 15 and 25c.

COURT PROCEEDINGS.

A Raffrond Case on Trial-A. Rassell dusead's buit to Recover Meavy Dammages from the Central-Mudson as Leunce of the West shore.

· Goshen, June 15-When the dog bite - case of Maher vs. Taylor was concluded, Abesday, the case of A. Russell Smead vs. tue N. Y., C. and H. R. R. R. Co. was baken up. Frank L. Holt and A. H. F. Seeger for plaintiff; ex-Judge Brown and Ashbel Green for defendant.

Mr. Seeger opened the case for plaintiff. Mr. Holt conducted the direct examination of plaintiff's witnesses. Judge Brown cross-examined.

The action is brought to recover for injuries sustained by falling in a culvert on the West Shore road at Cornwall, the latter road being operated by the New York Central. The evidence showed that son Dec. 13, 1897, Mr. Smead, in company with James W. Allert, was returning to Cornwall from New York on an evening train. On reaching Cornwall they I ft the train and walked down the platform to the highway leading up to Cornwall village. The train reached beyoud the highway and they walked down a cinder path running along the east-side of the tracks in order to pass around the rear of the train, the trainmen, as they testify, refusing to let them pass over the platform of the vestibule cars, the westerly side of the car platform being closed. In passing around . the rear of the train, Smead, who was in -advance and it being a very dark night, fell into a culvert about seventy feet below the depot platform.

. Smead was severely and permanently injured, as he claims, and has not since t -been able to follow his usual occupation s as business manager of the Commercial Travelers' Home Magazine, from which he received a salary of $30 per week and 30 per cent. commission, amounting to $200 per month. He also had charge of the reading notice department of the New York World, which netted him an average of $200 a month additional.

Besides this loss of salary he had to pay a doctor's bill of $653 and suffers pain all the time. His loss in salary and his expenses he figures at $3,900.

Considerable interest was manifested in the case from the fact that former Judge Brown, of Newburgh, was for the defense. A little tilt between the former occupant of the judicial bench and Judge Dickey occurred soon after the opening of the case. Plaintiff's attorney was examining the first witness, J. W. Allert, when Judge Brown interposed a question.

"Don't question the witness, Judge Brown, when he is not your witness,' said Judge Dickey. "If you have any objections to make they should be made to the court. We are very strict on that point and will treat all alike."

Judge Brown-'I take it you won't grant me any favora that you would not grant to anyone else."

Judge Dickey-"No, sir: I don't mean recovered a verdict of $300, for pro-1essional services.

In the case of the Hinchliffe Brewing Company vs. Allen W. Corwin, as executor, at the conclusion of the testimony for the plaintiff, George H. Decker for the defendant made a motion that the court direct the jury to find a verdict for the defendant, who claims the bar fixtures removed from the old Bell House. The Judge withheld decision until the attorneys could submit briefs. J. F. Bradner appeared for the plaintiff,

The case of Charles H. Babcock vs. Sarah M. Davis, both of Chester, is on this afternoon. The suit is brought to recover for the alleged conversion of perzonal property which the plaintiff claims to own. W. F. O'Neill appeared for the plaintiff and J. E. Melick for the defen-

A House Struck by Lightning at Wash-

During the heavy thunder shower of Saturday lightning struck a tree near the house of Charles W. Hull, Washingtonville. Part of the bolt leaped from the tree to the house, entering the room in which Miss Hull was sleeping and tearing a hole in the ceiling. Miss Hull was badly shocked, but was not injured and the lightning did no further damage.

rious troubles on account of their peculiar organism and their profound ignorance concerning themselves, all combine to shorten the period of usefulness and fill their later years with suffering. Mrs. Pinkham has done much to make women strong. She has given advice to many that has shown them how to guard against disease and retain vigorous health in old age. From every corner of the earth there is constantly coming the most convincing statements from women, showing the efficacy of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in overcoming female ills. Here is a letter from Mrs. J. C. Orms, of 220 Horner St., Johnstown, Pa., which is earnest and straight to the point:

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:-I feel it my duty to tell all suffering women that I think your remedies are wonderful. I had trouble with my head, dizzy spells and hot flashes. Feet and hands were cold, was very nervous, could not sleep well, had kidney trouble, pain in ovaries and congestion of the womb. Since taking your remedies I am better every way My head trouble is all gone, have no pain in ovaries, and am cured of womb trouble. I can eat and sleep well and am gaining in flesh. I consider your medicine the best to be had for female troubles."

ence in treating female ills is unparalleiled, for years she worked side by side with Mrs. Lydia E. Pinkham, and for sometime past has had sole charge of the correspondence department of her great business, treating by letter as many as a hundred thousand ailing women during a single year.
